MAN THE GAME HE'LL HUNT

SITE ORT FOWARD WHITE TAKES THE AFRICAN TRAIL.

me something Interesting Was Written twenty-four volumes thout the People as Well as the Anials. He Thinks Will Leave a New of any human interest is conalleld from the matter of mere edition this fall at silling. But I've read enough. Booth Tarkington is disturbed over to say about the people. So misunderstood in this far about all the information I've gleaned references to 'the native' or the unfor-Africa are not of the average negro type, the age of 30.

we did in this country with our Indians." trails. But he protests he doesn't know what use he will make of the information were sterile. And when I read of reople ive the life of the reople, and then October 29 nen it has soaked in I can go off and rate about it. I wouldn't have learned Homer Lee, the book in which the possiich about cowboy ranch life if I'd been sving myself taking notes. So I'm without plan or worry, to Central v visiting their summits."

Mr. White, born and reared in Michiany one does anything he is elected Hearn's own sketches. kes and is kept constantly fed up of the club you realize that here a purely artistic endeavor for the sake. New books announced by Harper A.

as they were when men Secombe's volume on Dickens will be published early next year.

In some as they were when men Secombe's volume on Dickens will be published early next year.

A revised and enlarged edition of "Beobe same old laws and the man new matter and many new illustrations. now eligible for the penitentiary see the complications that could the human interest side of the BOOKS AND AUTHORS. G. K. Chesterton is writing a book on

Miss May Morris is editing for Longmans. Green & Co. a complete edition of her father's (William Morris) works in Rex Beach, who has been in New York conservation Book Behind Him. for the last three months working on a the fashion now generally Horde," is preparing to go to New Orleans successor to his last novel. "The Silver among authors, artists and to spend November and December He aphers of going to Africa Stewart will then return to New York to prepare White, the conserving novelist for his fourth Alaskan trip next spring. Pacific slope, stopped in New York -The Silver Horde, published about sen appelled by motives negative sibly the most interesting period in the moks written about it in which "Mary Cary," has returned from a motor prefers to be known as a newspaper man gright to be a happy hunting ground. France. She is now at her home in Nor- all the time. If he would own to any has drawn a somewhat better folk. Va. Her story of the little orphan special ambition it would be that he had "China Under the Empress Dowager." han the average, and goes girl is to be brought out in a new gift rather tell the story of Kansas and the was for years in the Chinese Government ng books about Africa to get my the assignation to him in a recently printed interview of a seeming belief 1930 a white elephant darkened that the moral sense of woman is not horizon At 11:45 I plugged a equal to that of man. The novelist says | Of America. He timber be regency to her death of horizon. At 11:45 I plugged a equal to that he said what he is asserted to have the mouthpiece of Kansas's thought-They read something like that, said, but he said it implying certain deliand I'm going hunting but not for cate shades of distinction which would her patriotism especially than to be the leave the woman's moral sense the finest *We all know that the big game is there, thing after all. And the gallant Hopeier but I'm going hunting for something romancist would not for the world be Turgenev's "Annals of a Sportsman" it are more like our Indians-or what of this nevelist and of Tolstoy in "Two warlike each man is trained for war till they have done in the cause of freedom fought my way up to prosperity 1 am turned to her and the social betterment of Russia.

Yet 1500 white reople control six J. M. Barrie's fantasy "Peter Pan in millions of there savages, and I'd like to Kensington Gardens," with twenty-four My work is here among the cornstalks, verse has just been published by Harsee how they do it. They must be good color plates by Arthur Rackham, has where the brightest minded Americans pers, believes that modern recreations bears and do the job a little better than been issued by Messrs. Hodder & Stough- live and the keenest lovers of their counton in a popular edition, and the same This suggests that perhaps Mr. White firm is publishing in a limited edition I like to tell this story in my daily newslore his conservation bump in "The Peter Pan Portfolio," a large volume paper work, in my magazine articles in cities therecans fived at home and the West before starting for African of Mr. Rackbam's drawings in cofor.

the hackneyed list of the French classics flowers and cornstalks and cattle and I never start out for material with drams can envy the present generation. malice aforethought." he said. "When Coppee's picturesque play "Pour la first started writing I was sent out on Couronne." which has been done here such expeditions a time or two, but they in English by Henry Vrom and in England by such famed actors as Forbesadventuring by day and methodically Robertson and Mrs. Patrick Campbell, iting up their notes by night, like my will be issued in the original French distinguished predecessor on the game title, with English introduction and notes am a Kansas American in every breath trails. I am filled with awe by Dr. B. L. Hawkins of Harvard, by I draw and expect to draw until the last I have to live in a country long enough Measrs. Henry Holt and Company on and our Pacific States is set forth, has his head. Africa where mountains Moon and Kenia dealer in Manila last week capled to New been taken up by army officers, and a grow-eighteen and nineteen thousand York an order for fifty copies. Lieut. set in the air. I may even surprise them Gen. Chaffee, who wrote the introduction, was the first military man to take up a serious discussion of Gen. gan, where he says he learned his first. Lee's theory, and he has been followed

Michigan didn't do in that respect, claims santa Barbara for his home. Another book about Lafcadio Hearn services, however, for the prevalent fuzziness of his literary neighbors. It's the fault of the mountains and the great distance that cuts us off from the rest of the country," he said "That makes talifornia the great distance that cuts us off from the rest of the country," he said "That makes talifornia the graveyard of talent tree the frosty wind of get stuck up, but out there as soon is get stuck up, but out there as soon as a point of the mounter of get stuck up, but out there as soon as a point of the mounter of the properties of the country of the properties of the properties of the country of the properties of the country of the properties of plained "because I'm going to Africa been in books before and they talk all the final those men except one. When he more interestingly because they have wrote his famous "What's the Matter When you consider that a whole year's lists, as I may call the type of American When he finished it he tossed it to his foreman and told him to run it when he for one night's presentation and recompense of money or fame no one has done things more actional.

And this result is artistic Bros: "A Manual of Spiritual Fortifithere is the truly artistic work cation." by Louise Collier Willcox, Madame Rain. by Paul de Mussel.

Madame Rain. by de Mussel.

Madame Rain. by Paul de Mussel.

Madame Rain. by Paul de Mussell.

Madame Rain. be would write a piece that would be over the bead of his people. At first they didn't know how to take him. He went fight ahead. He began to make money and pay off his debts. He bought a new the bead of his people. At first they didn't know how to t answered by applicants for mem-phor the last seven have never, by the Japanese poet Yone Noguchi, dim answering the first: "How The book includes Mrs. Hearn's reminisof writing my first cences, her own story of her husband to get high prices for his magazine artiville's presentation copy of his book, her given for the first time to the public, the property of the structure of the first time to the public, and will be illustrated with sketches by ling days when he got his plate matter. White is sorry he is never to write here given for the first time to the public.

onservation novelist has taken ting before leaving his native and banking Holt's have provided an outh his "The Rules of the Game" and banking Holt's have provided an entire new set of plates for the fifth edition at night at home. He takes his time about with the pole discovery last fall. of W. A. Scott's "Money and Banking."

the turmoil brought on by the conben difficulties in the West.

Relies of the Game, he said.

Messrs. Bell (London) have just added to their "Masters of Literature" Series now there's no necessity for wulf," translated into English prose by bonus the country is opened J. R. Clark Hall, is published by Swan interpretations are Sonennschein. The book contains much

They have arisen, and that's leading American men of science. Seven-being again prophetic in announcing leading American men of science. Seven-being again prophetic in announcing leading American men of science. what conservation means Rumford to William Keith Brooks, have the causes and meanings of the uncer-

WM. ALLEN WHITE, THE KANSAN

PROUD OF BEING SPOKESMAN FOR KANSAS IDEAS.

Why He Has Refused Lucrative Offers to

William Allen White, author of "A Certain Rich Man," "In Our Town," The King of Boyville" and other stories with the tang of the new West in them, prides himself in being a Kansan of the Kansans. He is also a Republican in the Kansans. He is also a Republican in the Ransans. He is also a Republican in the Ransans.

trip through England and southern by profession, and a Kansan first, last and What Writers Are Saying and Being.

a part of Kansas and, thank heaven, Kansas is a part of me, yes, all there is boisterous." try reside, and here I shall live and die grain and the most human of human people in them yes, and the Kanass boy and gigl that I love so well. If I can tell their stories and make plain to the rest of the world their life, their character, their aspirations. I'll be satisfied You can call me what you like, insurgent, progressive, muckraker, anything so long as you also make it clear that I am a Kansas American in every breath I draw and expect to draw until the last.

October 29

The Valor of Ignorance," by Gerald Homer Lee, the book in which the possible invasion by Japan of the Philippines

Mr. White has refused many entiring of the see him not long ago and offered him $10,000 a year and all travelling and other expenses to write Will White's column for his newspaper daily. White shook that not $25,000 a year nor double that sum would tempt him to leave Kansas, and Emporia. "I know my life's work," he said, "and I know my limitations

When he finished it he tossed it to his foreman and told him to run it when he was away. He had no idea that it was anything unusual. He had written nearly two dozen editorial articles to be used in his absence. It came out about the days after he had gone away and White awoke after he had gone away and White awoke in the Bocky Mountains in Colorado one. morning to find himself famous. He still keeps printed slips of it to satisfy the mail

Through Five Administrations." by Col. william H. Crook, and edited by Mary delivery where Margaret Anglin reproduct the truly artistic work without the carmel colony. Tales, "a new edition with Peter Newell's about ten feet wide. In front was the counting and editorial room. In back about ten feet wide. In front was the counting and editorial room. In back was the little press. He did everything about ten feet wide. In front was the counting and editorial room. In back was the little press. He did everything the could himself, took in "ada", wrote and took part in the MacDowell Pageant, and the only unchallenged living and the only unchallenged living he says modestly.

Madame Rain, "by Paul de Musset.

Madame Rain, "by Col.

White began his newspaper owning at two owning at of W. A. Scott's "Money and Banking."

In novel showing the human moil brought on by the consulties in the West.
If the Game, "he said, the unfairness of soaking playing the game under to-day. The laws to-day. The laws to-day. The laws to-day as they were when men to go in and homestead, en them that the country heed up; laws were interlined up; laws were interlined to go in and homestead.

The laws were interlined up; laws were interlined up; laws were interlined to go in and homestead.

The laws to-day as they were when men to go in and homestead.

The laws to-day as they were when men to go in and homestead.

The laws were interlined up; laws laws to does and deniar ged edition of "Beowell up; laws to does and again in 1969, and is consequently white white about on the white white about on the white white white white white approves. A delicate, sweet faced, wholesome, cheerful woman is the white white appr

Is It the Voice of a Prophet?

In Henry Holt & Co.'s "Leading Americans" appears what might be called "Leading American Men of Science" by Leading American Men of Science by The antis say we want to lock there the stories of their lives and achieves the first lives and an interested observer of conditions. He promises revelations of startling the first lives and an interested observer of conditions. He promises revelations of startling the first lives and an interested observer of conditions. He promises revelations of startling the first lives and an interested observer of conditions. He promises revelations of startling the first lives and an interested observer of conditions. He promises revelations of startling the first lives and an interested observer of conditions. He promises revelations of startling the first lives and an interested observer of conditions. The Holl

HAPPY ENDINGS.

George Barr Met'utcheon Recommends Them for Best Sellers.

George Barr McCutcheon has a pleasant recipe for writing best sellers. "I just try to write ch erfully about men and women as I see them. he says "Most Go Elsewhere-He's as Much a Part persons like cheerfulness, and so I supof Kansas as Her Cornstalks and Sun- pose her like my stories. And the right flowers, He Sass Newspaper Work. man always gets the right girl in my Pacific slope, stopped in New York over day en route for the Dark a year ago, was the result of his third in the was going or what he was do when he got there, or how the was going to stay, or what of day and that he was on his way and that he was en impelled by motives negative than positive country that has had fifteen or books written about it in which and company of any human interest is got and a search of the sales a Republican in surgent leader, but his insurgency is also a Republican in surgent leader, but his insurgency is also a Republican in surgent leader, but his insurgency is also a Republican in the kansans. He is also a Republican in surgent leader, but his insurgency is also a Republican in the surgent leader, but his insurgency is also a Republican in the surgent leader, but his insurgency is also a Republican in the first and trip to the north.

The Silver Horde, published about a year ago, was the result of his third trip to the north

The Portuguese Grammar, by Prof. John C. Branner of Stanford University, which Messrs. Henry Holt and Company will issue late in October, appears at possibly the most interesting period in the history of that little country.

Kate Langley Bosher, the author of "Mary Cary," has returned from a motor profess to be known as a newspaper man and calls him, profess to be known as a newspaper man and calls him, profess to be known as a newspaper man and calls him, profess to be known as a newspaper man and calls him.

J O P Bland, one of the authors of central West than do anything else in service under Sir Robert Hart and thus this world. Neither money getting nor gained his information used in writing political power, for the sake of merely the book, which begins with an intropossessing either, appeals to White. He ductory history of the Yehonala family believes in the Kansas spirit as typical and covers the stirring incidents during of America. He thinks Kansas is the real Tzu Hsi's eventful reign from her first

The book form of May Sinclair's "The richest man in the State or a United States | Creators," published by the Century Senator. For these reasons White has re- Company, contains a number of passages jected time and time again flattering offers not found in the serial issue. Those who in journalism to go to thicago or Fastern know May Sinclair have much of interest to tell of her. One of many stories told "I belong as much to Kansas and want of her is that when she was last in America Turgeney's "Annals of a Sportsman" The belong as much to Kansas and want to make myself as much a part of her as she sat beside Mark Twain at a luncheon to make myself as much a part of her as she sat beside Mark Twain at a luncheon to make myself as much a part of her as she sat beside Mark Twain at a luncheon should be should difficiently for him to begin "inste fellow." The natives of Central "Uncle Tom's Cabin" did for the American her corn fields," he said not long age to She waited diffidently for him to begin negro. J. A. T. Lloyd has made a study an intimate friend. "I wouldn't be much conversation; he returned the comple account anywhere else I began life ment and waited too. The minutes r Indians were. They are savage and Russian Reformers," treating the work here with little or nothing and I have passed in profound silence. Finally he

"(bild, child," he said, "do not be so

Irving Bacheller, whose new volume of have usurped a large part of the leisure formerly given to reading and in my books. I suppose I shall write were well acquainted with their wives and Pupils who used to have to go through more books, but you'll always find suneither, a good book had a first mortgage

> Harry James Smith, author of the new novel "Enchanted Ground," has written Mr. White has refused many enticing a play called Mrs. Bumpstead-Leigh." which will be brought out by Mrs. Fiske in Chicago the middle of November Till make it $15,000 a year," said the tury Company, is a granddaughter of color pages from Jules Guérin's drawings, of Stone Money," by William H. Furness Jacob Abbott, who wrote the "Rollo" with, besides, forty full page halftones 3d, an account of the inhabitants and cus-books: a daughter of the late Rev. Ed. from photographs. As publication in toms of certain Pacific islands, illustrated White still shook his head.

"Well, you can have $20,000 and a long contract," said the visitor.

White again shook his head and said ward Abbott former editor of the Boston White again shook his head and said.

Literary World, and a niece of Dr. Lyman of unusual range to traveller, art lover, and a property of unusual range to traveller, art lover.

Miss Mary Mears, the author of "The own, and it is one of the best in Emporia and a first class newspaper shop. And it paid for itself! There's where White's heart is. He's glad to be an author and famous explorers, and Admiral Melting prices for his magnitude. here given for the first time to the public, and will be illustrated with sketches by for the reason that he thinks he as chance at the second question and will be illustrated with sketches by Genjiro Karaoka and by Lafcadio Hearn from Kansas City in the morning and sawed it up himself and printed it in the sawed it up himself and printed it in the fully ten years ago, she says, she began afternoon and was the whole thing in the Gazette, almost even to the printer's described in the books she read, with the Gazette, almost even to the printer's described in the books she read, with the gazette, almost even to the printer's described in the books she read, with the light write a published in the fall of 1911 by Frederick The publishers who a few years ago A. Stokes Company, which was Mr. Hich

FIVE ENTERTAINING NOVELS

THE SIEGE OF THE SEVEN SUITORS By MEREDITH NICHOLSON

"A delicious bit of fooling . . . may be commended without qualification."

-New York Herald.

"Just the sort of book which will delight those seeking clean, wholesome entertainment." - Boston Globe.

Blustrated by C. COLES PHILLIPS and REGINALD BIRCH. $1.20 net. Postage 14 cents.

CLEVER BETSY By CLARA LOUISE BURNHAM *

"One of the best stories of this delight- "A breezy, sympathetic and altogether ful author." - Boston Herald.

delightful tale.

- Philadelphia North American.

Blustrated by ROSE CNEILL. $1.25 nct. Postage 12 cents JOHN WINTERBOURNE'S FAMILY

By ALICE BROWN

"A delightful and unusual story . . . "Miss Brown is at her best in this new well worth reading."- New York Sun. work."- Chicago Evening Post. $1.35 net. Postage 13 cents.

A MAN'S MAN By IAN HAY

"A very joyous book . . . the writ-"A good, clean, straightforward bit of er's powers of characterization are fiction, with likable people in it.' -Minneapolis Journal much out of the common."-The Dial.

With Frontispiece by REGINALD BIRCH. $1.20 net. Postage 12 cents.

ENCHANTED GROUND By HARRY JAMES SMITH

"A bracing book. It deals with moral issues, deals with them nobly. -Milwaukee Free Press.

"Bound to justify it's title in achieving popularity."—Independent.

$1.20 net. Postage 12 cents,

HOUGHTON MIFFLIN COMPANY

Announcements of New Books.

second large edition within ten days of the publication date is the announce- fall publications is "China Under the ment from the Frederick A. Stokes Com- Empress Dowager," a history of the life pany concerning Peary's "The North Pole" and times of Tzu Hsi, compiled from state The publishers have prepared a special papers and the private diary of the compautograph edition limited to 500 copies, troller of her household by J. O. P. Bland levant. At the request of the author it illustrations and a map. From the same

K Jesup A very beautiful book is promised in the Century Company's sumptuous edi- in the affairs of the period in the history Eleanor Hallowell, author of "Molly tion of "The Holy Land," the brilliant of the United States between 1850 and 1860 Make Believe," just issued by the Centext by Robert Hichens, the exquisite Among the travel books are "The Island of unusual range to traveller, art lover, report on the Portuguese situation and Florida, where, with a savant from the of his new book, "Home Rule," by Fred-Natural History Museum, he has been crick A. Stokes Company. It contains The Long List of the Lippincotts.

Prominent in the list of J. B. Lippincott's bound in three-fourths crushed and E. Backhouse, and including many has been named "The General Hubbard house comes R. A. Fletcher's "Steam-Edition." in honor of Gen. Thomas H. ships and Their Story." a companion Hubbard, who has been president of the volume to "Sailing Ships and Their Peary Arctic Club since the death of Morris Story," and Charles Henry Jones's "The Life and Public Services of J. Glancy Jones," in two volumes, a biography of a Pennsylvanian who took an active part

Abbott

"Verses, stories, flock reviews and advertisements have comprised my writing endeavors," she says "And twice "holy land" of unusual range to traveler, and report on the Portugues Stoam Conditions; "To Abyssinia," by Capt C. H. Stigand, F. R. G. S. a photograph illustrated account of a journey through unexplored regions of British East Africa;

Restricted account of a journey through unexplored regions of British East Africa;

Restricted account of a journey through unexplored regions of British East Africa;

He even had harangues and personal encounters on the streets with the Populasi leaders. They went so far one day as to appoint a committee to wait on him and tell him they would run him out of town if

of an old maid aunt with a temerity which

of an old maid aunt with a temerity which

of an old maid aunt with a temerity which

of an old maid aunt with a temerity which

Niffin Company, brings some interesting the mutual admiration society, is duly admired every ten steps he sand is kept constantly fed up are heautiful, admirable and enviare heautiful, admirable and enviare heautiful, admirable and enviare heautiful admirable and envibeautiful admirable and enviare admirable and envibeautiful admirable and enviare during the civil war of the unit of the mit of the mit o by Frank Brangwyn, A. R. A.; Stories from the Operas, by Gladys David-son, in three volumes uniformly bound to aid her aspirations."

UNUSUAL NOVEL"

DAVID GRAHAM PHILLIPS

experiences in social life."

real and the artificial in life."

THE HUSBAND'S STORY

THE HUSBAND'S STORY

deserves praise for picturing the complex character of this type of man: one who goes on and on, winning success in business, making money, more than he needs for ordinary purposes, only to hand it out to his wife, to whom he is apparently a human ticket-in-the-slot machine from which she grinds out gold

'does not attempt to give an exposition as to why a man does this sort of thing, but it is easy to form an opinion. Here again first impressions should not prevail. This husband is not an exceptional one, as those who move about much know from their

"is an indictment of the class of people in this country who are dazzled by the apparent brilliancy of high life and titles until their blindness destroys their reasoning power to determine between the

So Condemnatory That It Should Be Suppressed or So

True That Everybody Should Be Forced To Read It

Cloth, $1.50. For Sale by All Booksellers

-The Boston Globe.

Inez Haynes Gillmore's Phoebe and Ernest

With some thirty illustrations by R. F. Schabelitz. A complete chronicle of a delightful, thoroughly American boy and girl, an equally delightful American father and mother, and a typical American home. Phoebe and Ernest lately created much enthusiasm among the readers of the American Magazine. $1.50.

S. Carleton Jones's Out of Drowning Valley

A lively tale of love, fighting and treasure hunting. The heroine is decidedly resourceful and the remarkable climax literally justifies the book's title. $1.50

By Eugene Manlove Rhodes

With 2 Ills, by H. T. DUNN. $1 net by mail $1.07. The story of a brave and humorous American of to-day in deadly peril on our Texan frontier.

"Ingeniously constructed, so clever, so full of genuine humor."
New York Tribune. "As genuine a comedy of bloodshed as the literature of American manners can furnish. Living Age. "Very near to being a model of what such a story should be as good as it could be made. About Springfield Republican. "Abounds in real humor and has a touch that is unmistakably Steven-sonian." Philadelphia Peess.

Henry Holt & Co., York

BOOKS—All out of print books supplied, no matter on what subject; write me stating books wanted, I can get you any book ever published; when in England call and inspect my stock of $0,000 rare books. BAKER'S GREAT BOOK-SHOP, John Bright st. Birmingham, England.

Autograph
Letters

of Celebrities Bought and Sold.
Send for price lists.
WALTER R BENJAMIN.
225 Fifth Ave. New York,
Pub. THE COLLECTOR BLAST

ary, Gl. Blas, Don Quixote PRATT, 161 6th av advertisements of second hand books for sale, exchange or wanted will be inserted in THE Sun. Saturdays, at 20c. a line (seven words to the line, four-teen lines to the inch). Display type not allowed.

Copy for advertisements under this classification must be received at THE SUN office not ater than Thursday previous to Saturday of insertion.

CENTURY DICTIONARY, 10 vois 1, morocco, colored plates $40.00 Encyclopædia Britannica. 3($100is. cloth, $18.00 Larned a Ristory for Ready Reference 6 vois sheep $12.50? Radford a Cyclopædia of Construction, 13 vois, 12 morocco, $15.00 Kirkman's Science of Railways, 20 vois 12 leather and cloth, $17.50 We have a well selected stock of nearly 50,000 vois Inspection in the HALL & O'MALLEY, 64 Cortlandt at Tel. Cost, $407

AEROPLANES, The Buoyant Source of Ema-ating from the Man Bird Skyudel how and the conceived to make aerial flights, described in Page 82 of book. Love is in the Stomach of M. Dagnall, originator and author, also for The Hash of Unistasia. The two books both bound, first edition, one dollar, postpaid M. DAGNALL, Publisher, P. U. Box 1281 procklyn, N. V.

STODDARD'S LECTURES, 1 set complete, its part leather binding, entirely new, will be exchange. H.O.DONNELL, 60 Clark at

FOR SALE Collection of seven hundred frish, English, French and German hookplates average date 1780. Price $350. 250 Oxford Bidg. Wash Ligton. D. C.

COUNTRY LIFE IN AMERICA Several numbers dating back to 1904, including special issues, for sale. Address box A. 116 Sun office.

Published D. APPLETON & COMPANY New York